B. OTR Cover Responsibility for External Training:

1. [redacted] met to discuss the problem of arranging for cover for external trainees. It was agreed that this function, and all items relative to it, will remain the responsibility of the Administrative Branch.

2. [redacted] of OTR met with Mr. Karamessines, Chief, Cover Division, FI, to discuss the OTR function relative to cover for external trainees. It was agreed that: (1) The DTR is responsible for determining the need for cover for external trainees; (2) Where cover for an established external program has already been determined, it will be the responsibility of the sponsoring office to brief the trainee; and (3) CIA Regulation [redacted] should be revised to reflect the appropriate changes relative to cover.

C. Air Conditioning in Headquarters Buildings

The perennial problem of when to activate "package-type" air conditioning units has been taken up with IO. As heretofore, GSA takes the position that the units cannot be activated until the danger of freezing of water in the cooling towers is past.

I. Classification and Wage Survey

25X1 [] The future development of the survey being conducted by Mr. [] Classification and Wage Division, is somewhat uncertain at this time due to probable organizational changes in the Office of Personnel and because of a possible new approach to the Agency wage structure. However, [] is proceeding with the survey on the basis that the aforementioned changes will take place too far in the future to affect his survey of OTR.

J. Status of the Table of Organization

25X1 The T/O, based on the new organizational structure of the Office of Training, has been distributed to appropriate persons and activities in the Office of Training and the Agency.
